

In this September Issue

September 2009

LAX Traveler Services

- Petals – New Flower Shop – Opens in Tom Bradley International Terminal
- “CrissCross” and “OutCast II” Art Exhibits Open in Terminal 3
- Mexicana Airlines Check-in Counters Re-located to Departures Level in Tom Bradley International Terminal

Air Service News

- LAX Ranks Among Nation’s Best for On-Time Arrival and Departure Performance
- Midwest Airlines to Relocate from Terminal 4 to Terminal 6 on November 3
- United Airlines to Launch LAX-El Paso Service on December 17
- British Airways “Power Networking” Flight Takes Off on October 13
- Air New Zealand’s Matchmaking Flight Set for Takeoff on October 13

LAX Traveler Services

Petals – New Flower Shop – Opens in Tom Bradley International Terminal
Petals – a new flower shop now open in the Tom Bradley International Terminal’s Meet-and-Greet area on the Arrival Level, features flowers grown in Southern California. An assortment of roses, carnations, seasonal flowers, bouquets, and arrangements in a wide variety of colors are available. For more information, click <http://www.lawa.aero/newsContent.aspx?ID=1199>

“CrissCross” and “OutCast II” Art Exhibits Open in Terminal 3
Los Angeles World Airports, in cooperation with the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs, unveiled new art exhibits in Terminal 3 featuring “CrissCross,” a wall mural illustrating the airport as an environment of interconnected places and experiences and “OutCast II,” a composition of hand-tied, multi-colored rags celebrating the history and symbolism of rags as a reflection of social dilemmas. For more information, click <http://www.lawa.aero/newsContent.aspx?ID=1197>

Mexicana Airlines Check-in Counters Re-located to Departures Level in Tom Bradley International Terminal

Mexicana Airlines check-in counters are now located on the Upper/Departures Level of Tom Bradley International Terminal after being temporarily relocated downstairs during renovations to the airline check-in lobby. The new check-in counters located in Aisle C feature upgraded check-in systems; brighter, energy-saving lighting; and new video displays providing up-to-the-minute flight status. For more information, click http://pr-usa.net/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=265561&Itemid=33

Air Service News

LAX Ranks Among Nation's Best for On-Time Arrival and Departure Performance
LAX ranks second among the nation's 15 busiest airports in terms of the fewest delays experienced by its passengers on domestic arriving and departing flights, according to U.S. Department of Transportation statistics. For more information, click <http://www.lawa.aero/newsContent.aspx?ID=1192>

Midwest Airlines to Relocate from Terminal 4 to Terminal 6 on November 3
Midwest Airlines will relocate its passenger services from Terminal 4 to Terminal 6, effective November 3. For more information, click <http://www.midwestairlines.com/AboutUs/CompanyNews.aspx>

United Airlines to Launch LAX-EI Paso Service on December 17
United will launch twice daily service between LAX-EI Paso starting December 17. The route will be served by United Express carrier SkyWest Airlines using Bombardier CRJ-200 regional aircraft that seat 50 passengers. For more information, click <http://www.tradingmarkets.com/.site/news/Stock%20News/2542636/>

British Airways "Power Networking" Flight Takes Off on October 13
British Airways is hosting a networking flight as part of its "Face-to-Face" Business Program where program winners will participate on a "Power Networking" flight and network with other business executives and receive presentations by business leaders and senior government officials. For more information, click http://www.britishairways.com/travel/bapress/public/en_us

Air New Zealand's Matchmaking Flight Set for Takeoff on October 13
Air New Zealand is hosting a Matchmaking Flight where singles can connect with other singles on a flight from LAX to Auckland, New Zealand on October 13. The flight will include a kick-off party at the departure gate, matchmaking advice from ABC's "The Bachelor" contestants, complimentary party packs, an open bar, and in-flight activities designed to find each passenger their perfect match. For more information, click <http://www.thematchmakingflight.com/>

LAX
Los Angeles World Airports

Please send newsletter comments, inquiries and suggestions to:

LAX Public Relations Division
Attn: Katherine Alvarado, Editor
One World Way, Room 109
Los Angeles CA 90045

Phone: (424) 648-5260
Fax: (424) 648-9207
To unsubscribe to the LAX Connection, email: kalvarado@lawa.org